 bodies. If you have no land here, if you will heart
 there in your volume, you will much oblige friends in Lower Egypt.

Yours truly,
 J. D. FARRER, Secretary.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it is the first official communication of the new President to the Congress. It is a very long letter, and it contains a great deal of information about the new administration and the state of the country. It is a very important document, and it is a very interesting read.
